A new acquisition by AMD-Ritmed

AMD-Ritmed is pleased to announce the acquisition of the assets of SOLON Manufacturing Company, a leading manufacturer of sterile and non sterile single use disposable medical devices for the US healthcare market. The transaction was completed on Monday August 2nd 2010.

About SOLON Manufacturing Company:

Solon Manufacturing Company, www.solonme.com, is ISO 13485: 2003 certified and an FDA registered manufacturer of devices for the medical, pharmaceutical, diagnostic and industrial industries. Solon manufactures single use disposable products for many applications. The product portfolio ranges from tongue depressors and cotton tipped applicators, to ear curettes, women's health devices and sophisticated virus retrieval devices. Solon is a world leader, manufacturing over one half billion sterile and non sterile swabs and applicators annually.

In addition, AMD-Ritmed is pleased to welcome Ken Shaw to the AMD-Ritmed US Sales Team in the role of Vice President - National Accounts, reporting directly to Scott Woolford, Vice President of Sales & Marketing. Ken was the Vice President of SOLON, his product knowledge and respected reputation in the medical community will be instrumental in making this a smooth and successful transition. With this latest acquisition, AMD-Ritmed continues on its focused path of being a predominant, valued supplier of disposable medical products to the North American healthcare community and deepens its already extensive customer base in the US marketplace.
